HUNTINGTON: This city is having an awning investigation. Complaints of broken hats and bumped heads were received by city officials and Mayor Sehon instructed Fred A. Light, street commissioner, to find out whether an ordinance requiring awnings to be at least seven feet above the sidewalk is being observed.

LOGAN: The recent tragic death of Arthur English, son of Thomas Dunn English, author of "Ben Bolt," has called attention to the fact that

BLOOD THE SEAT OF DISEASE

An eminent authority on nervous disease has announced that the blood is the seat of all disease. How important, therefore, that it be kept in a pure, healthy condition. For this purpose our local druggists, Stone and Mercer, guarantee Vinol because it is a combination of the most successful tonics known, iron in its most soluble form, the medicinal extracts of fresh cod livers, without oil, and the nourishing properties of beef peptone. Can you imagine anything better?—Advertisement.

The famous song was composed here. "His father wrote 'O, don't you remember sweet Alice, Ben Bolt,' under the wide branches of an elm tree where Mrs. Vile Neighbour lives, below the Banner office," says the Logan Banner. "The girl in the song was Alice Lawson."

FAIRMONT: W. A. Sager, Baltimore and Ohio brakeman, succumbed to pneumonia in the Cook hospital here. His body will be taken to Benwood for the funeral and burial.

CHARLESTON: John Albright, rural mail carrier in Logan county, was held under $5,000 bond by a United States commissioner to await action of the federal grand jury on the charge of abstracting ginseng from parcel post packages and replacing it with stones.

HUNTINGTON: Passengers traveling on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad are transferring at Millersport, Ferry, W. Va., where a heavy landslide occurred. Not a freight car reached here from Pittsburgh for twelve hours. A continual down-pour of rain here started the small

"NOSTRIOLA" FINE FOR "STUFFY" HEAD COLDS OR CATARRH

You must try NOSTRIOLA. A small trial size tube, which you can get at any drug store will be enough to show what it will do.

NOSTRIOLA is certainly fine for Colds, Croup, Nasal Catarrh, Hay Fever and kindred affections. You just apply a little to nostrils and at once, head is clear as a bell, you breathe freely and you distinctly feel your cold breaking up and leaving you.

The nostrils and the air passages are the breeding places for disease-breeding germs. When the membranes are sore and inflamed, you catch cold easily, and colds lead to Catarrh.

NOSTRIOLA is intended to soothe and strengthen the linings of the air passages so they can resist and throw off colds.

Get a small tube to try. All druggists sell and recommend NOSTRIOLA.—Advertisement.

CHARLESTON: An increase from $1 to $2 a day in demurrage rates on freight cars is asked for by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company and the Western Maryland Railway Company in a petition presented to the public service commission. The change will be opposed by trade organizations in the state. The companies declare that the increase is necessary to get more prompt removal of cars by shippers and to help relieve the car shortage.

WHEELING: Lovers and out for a lark to see the world, Miss Emma Kirski, a pretty girl of 17, garbed as a boy, and John Rose, aged 19, were yanked off a box car at Hollaway, O., and brought back to their home. The couple boarded the train here and intended to go to Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling, the latter, Holloway, the wind blew off the girl's hat. Her raven black tresses fell over her shoulders. An officer, who was near, saw her and the couple was taken in custody.

Choosing the Floor Coverings for the Summer Home

By ADLIE MENDEL.

Pilgrims start out from Cairo once a year carrying a marvelously wrought carpet to Mecca. These pilgrims are escorted by a military escort, and their journey is carefully guarded. Once a year they also return with the old carpet which has been made doubly sacred by its sojourn in the Holy City. The making of this carpet is entrusted to one family. It is made of silk and lined with cotton, as anything made entirely of silk is prescribed by the Koran, may be used. The carpet is left at the Kaaba—a box-shaped stone building. Few persons except Mohammedans have ever seen the Kaaba, for those who are not followers of Mohammed enter it at the risk of their lives.

If one can afford an Oriental rug, he must look at it from three different standpoints—art value, color and design. For the value based on its rarity—and then from its utility standpoint. The fineness and the value of a rug, as with the cashmere shawl, is measured by the number of knots to the square inch. A skillful weaver can tie from twelve to fourteen knots a minute—from 7,000 to 8,000 knots a day.

Chinese rugs more easily procurable at present than the Turkish and Persian rugs, are enjoying a wave of extraordinary popularity.

In America we may come to be as proud of some of our floor coverings, for our advance in textile manufacturing has been simply short of marvelous, and the past seasons have marked a strong advance in the market of rug-making.

The Persian silk rugs, reproduced in designs from Oriental rugs, are wonderful reproductions of a beautiful sheen, said to be absolutely fast in color. The sizes of these rugs range from 27x34 inches to 9x20 feet and upwards.

For carrying out the motifs and color scheme of cretonne furnishings the Kilimnook rugs are especially adapted. These rugs rank among the highest class decorative seamless rugs.

The Saxony reproduction of Orientals have all the mellow softness of a real antique rug. A Saxony in reproduction of a camel's hair Mahanbar has that soft tan color peculiar to camel's hair, with a design in rich tones that make it especially suitable for the living room. These rugs may be had in all sizes up to 11 feet 3 inches by 15 feet, also runners for hall or stairway can be secured. In the same wave are two tone effects with a border ornamented with a classical design, or a plain border.

To meet the demand for the black and white vogue, rugs with black background and fine patterns in gray or taupe, others are striking and original with just plain fields of gray or taupe with four-inch black borders.

Reseda green, mulberry, French gray, brown, putty color and blues seem to be the favorite colors for floor coverings. Seamless chenille rugs come in plain with two-tone borders, all-over designs and in Oriental reproductions. A seamless chenille rug of tan-brown and border with an all-over Chinese blue figure in the center would add grace and dignity to a room. These rugs may be ordered in any size or practically any color combinations.

The Bundhar Wilton Rug is surely an innovation, and fits in well in odd-shaped rooms. It is of extra heavy pile, heavy as hand tufted and quite out of the best importations. Of usual merit, it fits well in a room with a bay window, and probably is the most talked of, of the new carpet offerings.

Beautiful loom-tufted rugs, with all the lustre color effects of the Oriental rugs, are to be had at a moderate cost. Good service is insured by the long, silky, shiny Chinese wool used, which gives the fabric a resiliency, but insures durability.

A plain velvet carpet had the chair carpet used for its border, which may be a good idea to imitate.

A carpet rug always gives perfect satisfaction, and this year there are many new patterns and designs. A good carpet sweeper and not a broom should be used on a new rug. If this is done, the life of the rug will be prolonged and the pattern will be preserved until the last vestige is worn out. An Axminster rug should not be beaten, but should be shaken or cleaned with a vacuum cleaner.

Scotch art rugs, homespun rugs and soft velvet cotton rugs are sure to give the greatest returns for the small amount expended.

The sanitary and comfort advantages of linoleum are not only considered for the kitchen, pantry and bath, but also the bare patterns for every room in the house. Tile effects, mosaic patterns, wood patterns and carpet effects are much in demand.

American flax has been turned into successful floor fabrics. Linen rugs come in a wide range of colors and patterns and are good choice for the summer home. Willow-grass rugs maintain their reputation for outdoor and indoor furnishings, and show a wide range of carefully blended colors. Quality, design, color and fitness are four requisites to be considered by the conservative rug buyer when buying rugs either for the town or country house.

Crex rugs have a sense of freshness and cleanliness about them. Fibre rugs in herringbone weave, either in plain colors or those having a border design and a good choice for the summer home. Cheerfulness exemplified and smooth of finish is a Crex rug with a red scroll border and deep red band.
